Dear Mr. Wrone:

At long last, according to the copy of the letter I received, you heard from the network. Quite obviously not the answer you wanted, but I guess that's their position, and they'll stick to it.

I've tried to call you many times during the past couple of weeks, and we just can't make a connection. I do want to come down and visit with you, however, now I am leaving town for a little while. Matter of fact, I won't be back until April 17th.

If there is a time during the week of April 17th that we could meet, with the exception of Friday afternoon which is already booked, drop me a line so I have it when I return.

Yours truly,

Bart Kellnhauser
